“STRONG BLOSSOMING THING FOREVER,” AN EXHIBITION BY SARAH ANN WEBER AT ANAT EBG, LOS ANGELES
June 24, 2021

Sarah Ann Weber, A dreamful ease, 2021 Oil and colored pencil on panel 72” x 96”

Purple is pleased to present “Strong Blossoming Thing Forever,” an exhibition of new works by Sarah Ann Weber at Anat Ebgi, Los Angeles. Emerging from a year of biological, political, and personal turmoil, the works present an overgrown landscape that places Mother Earth at the forefront rather than the figure. Weber’s imaginative stylisations propose that the spiritual essence of the world is as complex as our bodies, and a fairy tale character in itself.
