Sneak Peek into the Art Basel Hong Kong showcasing Artists
May 1, 2021

One of the most famous art fairs, Art Basel Hong Kong, presents us with a hybrid format and 104 galleries this year. The art fair is running from Wednesday to Sunday (19th until the 23rd of May) and is showcasing 21 countries for this 2021 edition. It feels fantastic to see the world recouping from a year of continuous lockdowns. And the art world is not holding back its efforts and excitement to have us all interacting with art again!

Although things are opening back and looking brighter, Art Basel Hong Kong has recognised the importance to maintain an online presence along with in-site booths. So, if you are unable to attend the art fair, you can still enjoy their online viewing rooms and live broadcasts.

If you are interested in seeing what kind of art Art Basel Hong Kong is showcasing, you came to the right place!

Greg Ito

Greg Ito is one of the emerging artists showcasing at the Art Basel Hong Kong fair this year. The artist creates dreamy landscapes full of symbolic motifs – windows, snakes, candles, the sun or the moon. Despite the vibrant, lively scenery, the artist's inspiration reflects on his family trauma in WWII. More than a painter, Ito's work often involves immersive and surreal installations and sculptures that match the narrative of his paintings. Surely his flat, bright colours will gather lots of attention at the fair.
